As this DECLARATION may reach the hands of some persons unacquainted with this House, we append hereto, as specimens of the testimonials in our possession, copies of letters from several gentlemen, distinguished politically and militarily, and widely known throughout the United States:

BELVIDERE, ILLINOIS, October 24, 1875.
I take great pleasure in recommending Captain GEORGE E. LEMOS, now of Washington, D. C., to all persons who may leave claims to title or other business to process before the Department at Washington. I know him to be thoroughly qualified, well acquainted with the law, and with Department rules in all matters growing out of the late War. I have especially in the Paymaster's and Quartermaster's offices. I have had occasion to employ him for friends of mine, also, in the soliciting of patents, and have found him very active, well informed, and successful. As a gallant officer during the war and an honorable and successful practitioner, I recommend him strongly to all who may need his services.
