H. H. Emerson departed this life Sept. 10, at the home of M. W. Helm, at 5 a. m. H. H. Emerson was born June 12, 1820, in the state of Tennessee, and emigrated with his parents, at the age of 12, to Massac county, Ill., where he lived till 1870. He then moved to Butler county with his family, where he lived until the time of his death. This country was little more than a wilderness when he settled near Black Creek church. He professed faith in Christ at twelve years of age and lived a consistent Christian. He was deacon and clerk in Black Creek church for 25 years.

He was married to Miss Elizabeth Howel, March 16, 1843. To this union were born ten children, eight of whom are still living, with an aged mother. He leaves also thirty-five grandchildren and twenty-two great grandchildren. He died with consumption, being aged 82 years and 2 months. Surely father in Isreal is gone.

Funeral services were held by Eider W. H. Wilson, after which all that was mortal of grandpa Emerson was laid to rest in Black Creek cemetery.
