

MRS. ISABELLE GRAY.

This community was shocked when the news came over the wire telling of the death of Mrs. Isabelle Gray. She had been in Oklahoma since last November, becoming sick about ten weeks ago. Eight weeks ago her children were called to her bedside, as she wished it. She seemed to get so much better they all returned home about two weeks ago. The immediate cause of her death was pneumonia, following a fall which caused a fracture of one of her lower limbs.

Isabelle Pratt was born in Dixon, Illinois, February 27, 1846, and died July 29, 1917, aged 71 years, 5 months and 2 days. When but a small child her parents moved to Wisconsin and from there to Nebraska in 1860. March 13, 1867, she was united in marriage to Robert Gray. To this union were born eight children, seven of whom are living, a son having died in infancy. Those surviving are Mrs. Abbie H. Hunnicutt of Giltner, Nebraska; Eva F. Holman of Willard, Oklahoma; Anna Ward of Enid, Oklahoma; Robert L. Gray of Krenlin, Oklahoma; Isabelle E. Campbell of Harvard, Nebraska; J. R. Gray of Pittsville, California; and Florence A. Moffitt of Krenlin, Oklahoma. All were at the funeral except the youngest son, who was unable to come. Besides the children she leaves twenty-nine grand-children, four great grand-children, five brothers, one sister and a host of friends.

She had been a christian for thirty years, uniting first with the Salem Baptist church and later with the Christian church at Giltner. She was a loving mother and her family will miss her very much, as she has made her home among them since the death of her husband in 1903.

The remains were brought to Harvard Monday and the funeral was held at the Christian church the following day, after which the form was laid to rest in Harvard cemetery beside that of the husband.
